

What the experts say...

Take a look at our Pro Staff and you'll see a lot more than "figurehead" endorsers. The White Pro Staff features expert, record-setting professionals, who trust their shooting performance to nothing less than the finest muzzleloading rifles available.

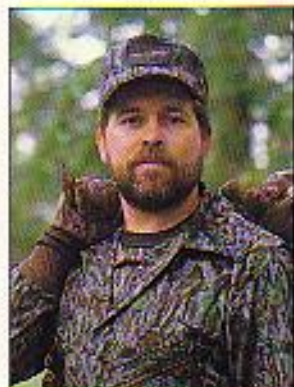

Discover what these experts already know. When your hunting equipment can make the difference between success and failure, you don't take chances...you take White.

Think long-range

Expand your horizons. Open your eyes to a new breed of high-performance muzzleloading rifles that put you in the hunt...and one step ahead of the competition.

The White Muzzleloading System is more than just a finely-crafted muzzleloading rifle. It's more than just an aerodynamically designed bullet. It's more than just accessories and attachments. It's ideal principles systemized and refined, blending design and function with machine into a single effective system that will change the way you think and hunt with a muzzleloading rifle. The White Muzzleloading System unleashes the ultimate in muzzleloading firepower more accurately and effectively than any muzzleloading rifle created.

So aim beyond the ordinary. Discover what the White Muzzleloading System offers you. And discover what we mean when we say "Performance That Others Can Only Shoot For."
