Featured Speaker, Ray Eye

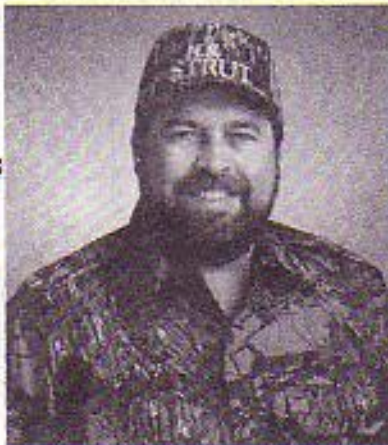

Ray Eye. One of our country's most renown, living outdoor legends. And America's premiere educator, entertainer, celebrity and expert in the world of hunting.

A nationally recognized personality whose endless adventures have appeared in countless national magazines, newspapers, radio and television shows.

The man described by the Wall Street Journal as "Today's Premiere Turkey Hunter," and whom Outdoor Life Magazine heralds as a "great outdoor legend."

Ray Eye's deep love and respect for the outdoors and wildlife comes from more than 35 years of hard-earned experience – with more than 25 years experience as a Pro Guide. Far and wide, all that know Ray respect him as a master woods-

Ray has devoted much of his time to passing on his knowledge of the wild to the public he serves. Among his many accomplishments, Ray has co-authored the benchmark turkey hunting book, "Hunting Wild Turkey's With Ray Eye", and has produced the award winning video series, "Eye on the Wild Turkey key". As a new addition to the Eye on the Wild Turkey series of products, Ray has released "Eye on the Wild Turkey key – Sounds of Spring" audio recording we've ever heard of turkeys in the wild. "Sounds of Spring is the best recording we've ever heard of turkeys in the wild."

As a new addition to the Eye on the Wild Turkey series of products, Ray has released "Eye on the Wild Turkey key – Sounds of Spring" audio recording we've ever heard of turkeys in the wild.

Through video, audio, radio and television – and thousands of seminars including the NRA's Great American Hunters Tour, Ray has helped educate millions of hunters on the tactics, ethics and safety of hunting.

But most important to Ray, is the time he donates to the preservation and restoration of wildlife and natural habitat. Through the education of America's youth, and by working closely with schools, and numerous Conservation Organizations, Ray has and will always, strive to preserve our priceless wildlife resources – and the privilege of hunting and enjoying the great outdoors.
