CALLING TURKEY HUNTERS

TO CLINIC AT COLLEGE

Turkey season in Missouri is April 19 through May 2. Hunters who want to brush up on their skills will enjoy a "Turkey Hunters Clinic" at Jefferson College on Friday, April 16.

Ray Eye, fourth ranked turkey caller in world competition, will be the featured speaker on the program which is scheduled for 7-9:30 p.m. in the Student Center Building on the College's campus near Hillsboro. Eye has placed in more than 50 turkey calling and owl hooting contests since 1975. He is currently Southwest Open Turkey Calling Champion and the winner of the Grand National Owl Hooting Championship held recently in Niagara Falls, New York.

Eye's Calling technique is unique; he uses his voice to call turkeys with purrs, gobbles, clucks, and yelps. He is also proficient in the use of various types of mechanical callers and he produces his own line of "Ozark Mountain Calls."
